Where are the Dwarfs?

You adults were probably hoping to see dwarfs in this show, or at least grown men making fools of themselves by putting shoes on their knees.

But, at an early stage of rehearsal, our dwarfs experimented with cross-pantomiming and were led astray by a sweet-seeming girl called Alice, who offered them a barely legal Hi-ho, in a bottle labelled 'Drink Me'.

This may explain their grouchiness, smiliness and dippiness, but probably not their braininess.

Alice is a very naughty girl and this did not work out well for our sweet little dwarfs. They started growing to an enormous size, so that they would only have been visible from the knees down on our stage. Only the timely intervention of Nurse (Queeny) Asphyxia with her antidote could prevent this and limit them to their present hideous size and forms.

Would they go down on their knees for the Directors? ... No, they would not!

Our charity for this show

Following this production, a donation will be made to Kingston Churches Action on Homelessness.

KCAH supports primarily single people who are homeless, at risk of becoming homeless or who are experiencing serious problems with private landlords.

It helps solve housing problems and improve the quality of people's lives by:

- providing a drop-in advice service,
- making referrals to relevant housing providers,
- providing temporary accommodation,
- offering a Job Club,
- providing emergency clothing, equipment and food.

A Plea from Spring Grove Fringe

Does anyone have any spare space which Spring Grove Fringe could use to store costumes and props?

We are about to lose our present storage and urgently need somewhere in the local area if possible. We require about half a garage or a large shed in size and do not need to access it regularly: only once or twice before and after each of our four productions a year. We cannot afford commercial storage costs, but could pay a modest monthly rental.
