

The Deficit Reduction Plan is hitting the Spratt family, whose finances aren't as 'zipa-dee-doo-dah' as they might be. The coming to power of Squire Trebormint means that Mrs Spratt is going to have to pay her back rent. Her two lazy sons don't help – both long-term unemployed and without the necessary skills to find the Job Centre. The only worker in the family is Clara the cow.

Unemployment is so bad, that the Market Sweepers are now recruiting only from the vast pool of unemployed graduates. But it's an ill wind that blows nobody any good, and the Leader of the Market 'Clean-with-a-Smile' Team is well on the way to becoming a more cost-effective Chief Executive Officer.

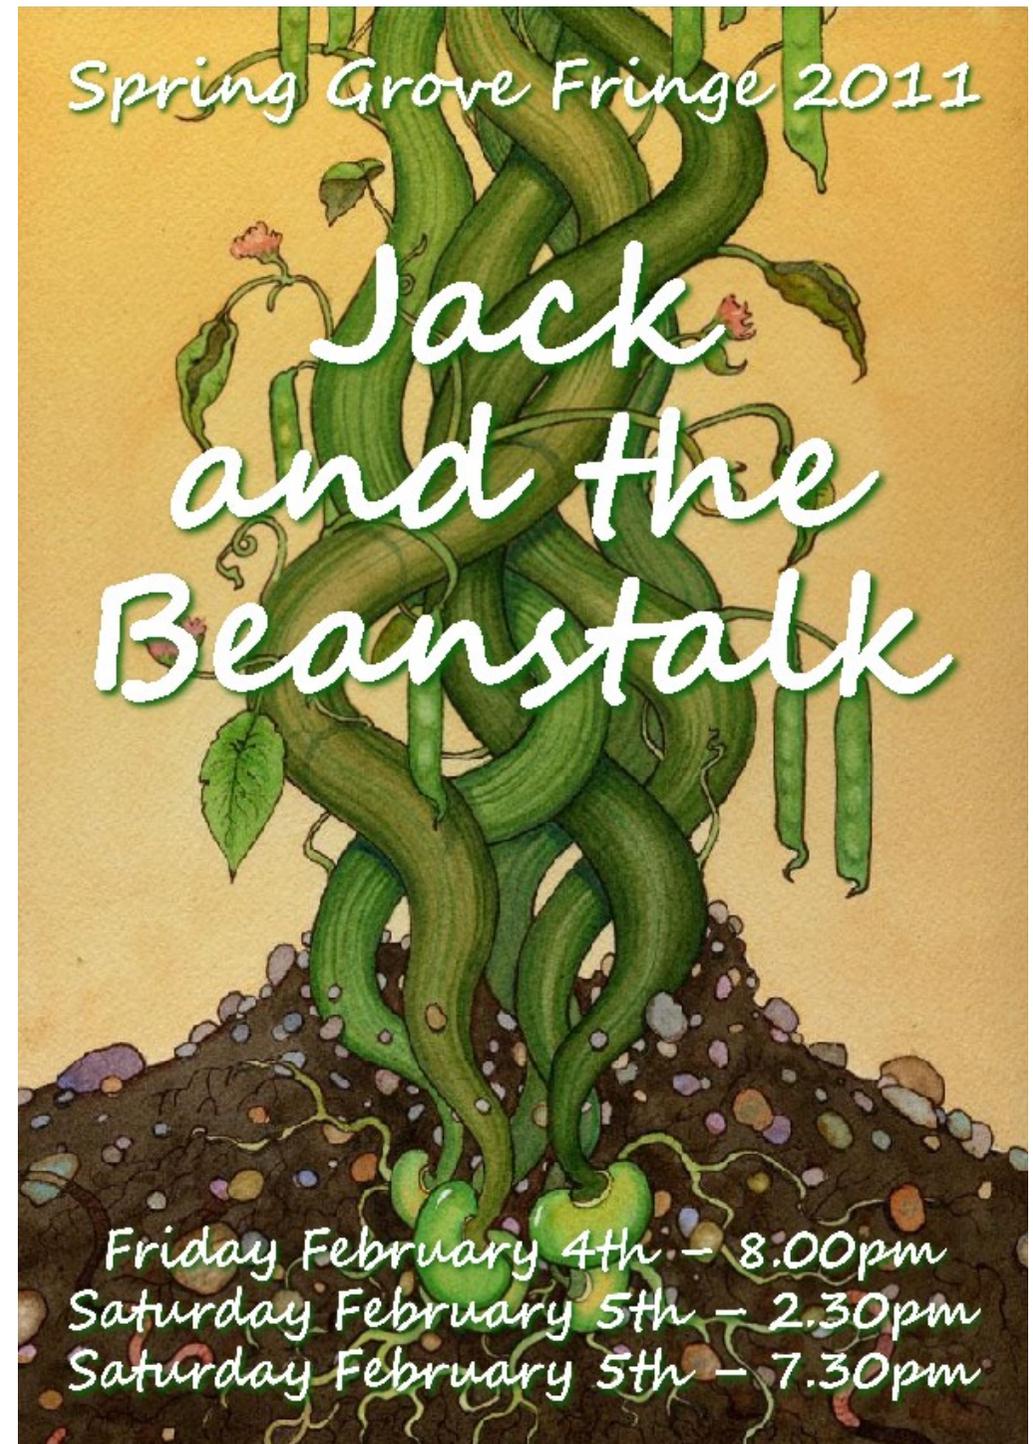

Jack has taken a foolish fancy to the Squire's daughter, Jill, but she, unknown to him, has seen a compassionate side of his character that her father does not possess. He has recruited European migrants past their sell-by date to do his rent collection.

But remember that, in Spring Grove, there are many forces, both dark and light, at work just under the surface. The four witches, who can often be seen each clutching a cauldron sized glass of Chardonnay, are busy spinning, weaving and cutting the threads for the fabric of the lives of our characters. And, if you brush aside the cobwebs spun by the spiders in your bedroom, you might find an angel.

'Dig for Victory' and you may reach a magic land, Cloudland, where the Giant holds celebrity chefs in thrall to do his cooking, and the Bean People to do his other work. But, with only beans to eat, its only sweet-smelling advantage is the golden eggs laid by the Giant's hen.

Donation from the proceeds of this Pantomime will be made to two charities. Local resident Sally Brockway is running the London Marathon on April 17th to raise money for The Bridge, a local organisation which works with families and their children who have communication difficulties, such as Autistic Spectrum and Attention Deficit Disorder. Her son has Asperger's Syndrome and ADHD. As a result he struggles socially. With The Bridge, he has improved his social skills and boosted his confidence. Best of all, he has found a group of friends who do not judge him.

Shelter is a housing and homelessness charity which believes everyone should have a home. Shelter does this by giving advice, information and advocacy to people in housing need, and by campaigning for lasting political change to end the housing crisis for good.
