The Garter Inn

Ideal for your next corporate entertainment.

Our in-house catering team will work with you to ensure your guests will get drunk out of their five senses. Venison and swan a speciality.

Our resident guests will be requested to refrain from spitting.

Position sought

Robin is a pretty little weathercock who seeks a position as a page. Nobility preferred, but very versatile – can be a deceitful go-between, bear letters, or sail like a pinnacle.

Item supplied may differ from illustration.

Refugee Action Kingston

Following this production, a donation will be made to Refugee Action Kingston.

Whether we're born in Kingston or arrive here later in life, every one of us can play a valued role in the community. All we need is the right support.

Coming in 2022 ...

February 4th/5th ... Toad of Toad Hall

A A Milne's dramatisation of Kenneth Grahame's 1908 novel The Wind in the Willows tells the story of Mole, Water Rat, Badger, and Toad, and takes place along a peaceful riverbank surrounded by lush meadows. Mole is originally from a neighbouring meadow, but one fine spring day he ventures away from his home and finds the magical life of the river awaiting him.

May 20th/21st ... Outside Edge

A comedy set in a cricket pavilion, written by Richard Harris.

Do Roger and Miriam really have the perfect marriage? Does Ginnie really have a cold? And will little Kev persuade big Maggie to leave the bricklaying and watch him play for once?

Roger has troubles enough in assembling his team, but they pall before those amongst the wives and girlfriends.
